

The Bryan Area Foundation is committed to "Making a Splash" this fall with several "water themed" programs. This is in fulfillment of our mission and strategic plan to proactively enhance, build, serve, and give to our community and its members now, and for years to come.

The first initiative took place on Tuesday, August 17th, when PJ Fleck, Head Coach of the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers Football team, and author of the best-selling book, Row the Boat, spoke to the administrators and educators of Bryan City Schools. The presentation and training materials were made possible by a grant from the Bryan Area Foundation. Coach Fleck shared his message regarding the use of enthusiasm and optimism to engage others and create positive outcomes via webinar. Post training, each BCS staff member received a copy of the Row the Boat book as a guide for implementing the principles learned in the classroom.

Keeping with the water theme, and destined to make a big splash, Bethany Hamilton, professional surfer, famous for returning to the sport as a national champion after losing her arm in a shark attack, is coming to Bryan October 19^{th.} Famous for saying, "I don't need easy, I just need possible...."

FREE EVENT Open to the Public

Hamilton will share her message about developing a mindset to overcome any obstacle. Bethany will share her message during the day to students and educators, and in the evening, she'll share her message with the community at the A&E auditorium. Both events are free to attendees thanks to a grant from the John C. Markey Charitable Fund of the Bryan

Area Foundation, and through generous donations made by Altenloh, Brinck & Co, and CHWC (Community Hospitals and Wellness Centers.) Additionally, to coincide with the event, CAHF (Community Advocates for Healthy Families) will be hosting a family movie event on Sunday, October 3rd, showcasing "Soul Surfer" the autobiographical movie based on Bethany Hamilton's shark attack and return to surfing.

Finally, in keeping with our "making a splash" theme, Project 2020's Interactive Fountain project is slated for completion this fall. You can find updates on this exciting project in Chair Mike Shaffer's comments on page 2.

As always, we thank you for your support of the Bryan Area Foundation, and we hope you'll join us on October 19th to be inspired by speaker Bethany Hamilton!

Message from our Chairman

It has been wonderful to see so many people enjoying activities in our community this summer. What a stark contrast to a year ago!

The Bryan Area Foundation Leadership Team continues to work on implementing items in its strategic planning objectives which includes stimulating new projects to bring further life to the community. I hope some of you have had the opportunity to enjoy concerts in the amphitheater. I have, and am pleased we have such a beautiful facility in our parks. Unfortunately, the adjacent interactive fountain project has experienced unforeseen delays due to supply chain issues, weather issues, and now permitting issues. The project is still scheduled to be completed this year and I anticipate it will be enjoyed this fall.

> I encourage everyone to take part in activities we have available in our community and continue to make Bryan a warm place to live and gather.

Disc Golf Course at Opdycke Park

$12,000 Grant

Disc Golf Basics

- 1. Retrieve a score card and view the map of the course.
- 2. Locate #1 sign post and the cement tee pad.
- 3. Throw discs towards the basket.
- 4. Advance toward the baskets as a team.

The Bryan Area Foundation awarded a grant of $12,000 to the Williams County Parks to develop an 18-Hole Disc Golf Course at Opdycke Park. Opdycke Park is located at the intersection of county roads 16 and J, north of Hillside Country Living Nursing Home. Todd Roth, Williams County Engineer, along with the Williams County Park Board managed the construction of the course. The Opdycke course was designed by Stan Tipton, and county workers and local disc golf volunteers also contributed to this project.

Disc Golf is played like traditional golf, but with golf discs instead of balls and clubs. One throw (stroke) is counted each time the disc is thrown and when a penalty is incurred. The goal is to play each hole in the fewest strokes possible. The player with the lowest total strokes for the entire course wins. Disc golf is a convenient way to get exercise while having fun, and is a great activity for the whole family.

Looking for a way to give back to your community and support your charitable interests?

Turn your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) into a tax-saving charitable gift through a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). In 2015, the IRA QCD became a permanent part of the internal revenue code. People 70 ½ or older are allowed to transfer up to $100,000 annually (or $200,000 for a couple) from their IRA accounts directly to a charity, without first having to recognize the distribution as taxable income potentially saving federal, state and local income taxes.

The Foundation can help you support your charitable interests by offering several fund options: a community fund, designated fund, scholarship fund or a field-of-interest fund. The law prohibits QCD's to a donor advised fund.

Planning today can ensure the causes you care about will continue to be supported beyond your lifetime.
